Chief Justices, State Court Administrators, and other court professionals are invited to attend this webinar to hear about the Byrne State Crisis Intervention Program (SCIP). The program is a potential funding source for courts that are striving to respond to court-involved people in crisis. SCIP offers an important opportunity to build courts' capacity to develop innovative strategies for risk prevention and crisis intervention.

The Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) will provide an overview of SCIP and NCJFCJ will share specific examples of effective responses in a variety of court settings that SCIP funding can support. NCJFCJ will also describe the training and technical assistance available to judges, courts, and court-connected stakeholders engage in these responses.

If you have questions or need assistance with registration, please contact Annette Williams, NCJFCJ, at awilliams@ncjfcj.org
